

The Byzantine Museum

The Pedoulas Byzantine Museum was established during the tenure of Morphou Bishop Neofytos in order to preserve the cultural heritage of the island.

The late Andreas Ellinas was the founder and generous sponsor of the Byzantine Museum. The Reverend Bishop Neofytos was the first director of the museum.

The Folkloric Museum

Situated in a central location of the village near the main church of Holy Cross, the Folkloric Museum pro

Inaugurating the Museum in 2005 jointly with the Greek Minister of Cultural Development Mr. Demetris A

In addition to the traditional arts and crafts, the Museum features the interior of a Cypriot house with all i

At the entrance of the Museum you will find the bust of the grantor the late Vassos Hadjiioannou.

